The first man was of the earth, of dust;
the second Man is from heaven.
And as we have borne the image of the man of dust,
we shall also bear the image of the heavenly Man.
(1 Corinthians 15:47,49)

sons and daughters,
created in His image
(study starts September 15)

*What does God mean when He tells us we've been created in His own image, according to His likeness? And maybe more importantly, what might that mean for the lives we lead? It may just mean we need to be re-created, re-formed to find that which was lost: the very imprint of our Maker upon our souls. We'll be searching the Scriptures together to see what God is trying to tell us, looking for answers and guidance about what it means and of course, how to get there.
